

Webinar: Getting personal, N-of-1 trials for personalized medicine

Organized by: Amsterdam Public Health research institute,
Personalized Medicine program

Date: March 14, 15.00-16.30

Program

15:00 – 15:20 Personalized medicine for rare genetic neurodevelopmental disorders - can we make it happen?

Dr. Agnies van Eeghen, MD, PhD, ID Physician/ AVG, Emma Center for Personalized Medicine, Emma Kinderziekenhuis, Amsterdam UMC; Advisium, 's Heeren Loo, Hoofddorp.

15:20 – 15:50 Methylphenidate for ADHD in Phenylketonuria : an N-of-1 study protocol

Annelieke Muller, PhD student Emma Center for Personalized Medicine, Emma Kinderziekenhuis, Amsterdam UMC; Advisium, 's Heeren Loo, Hoofddorp.

15:50 – 16:10 N-of-1 for inborn errors of metabolism: the example of L-serine for GRIN2B

Bibiche den Hollander, PhD student Emma Center for Personalized Medicine, Emma Kinderziekenhuis, Amsterdam UMC.

16:10 – 16:30 BUDDI: BUmetanide for Developmental Disorders; a single-case experimental design

Lisa Geertjens, MD, PhD student N=You, Afdeling kinderpsychiatrie, Emma kinderziekenhuis

16:30 Closing

Speakers will be available for further questions until approx. 17.00h

Register now!

Amsterdam Public Health

